THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

TO THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FROM MARCH 31ST, 1900, TO APRIL 1ST, 1901.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN respectfully presents to the GENERAL ASSEMBLY its THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

We are thankful to be able to say that we closed our fiscal year free from debt. It has not been a year of retrenchment, but one of moderate expansion. Relieved from the long existing and burdensome load that we had been carrying, we began to think less about curtailing expenses and repressing growth, and more about recovering the ground we had lost during the dreary years in which our income steadily declined, and our work was necessarily brought within narrower bounds.

Our first duty under these better conditions, we felt was toward our faithful workers, on many of whom had fallen all the hardship that came from smaller salaries and shorter terms of service. In our church work we had been slow to add to the number of ministers on our list, or to open up new fields of labor, so long as we were being compelled to reduce in their living, to almost a starving point, many of the men already in the service.

Our first act, therefore, was to go carefully over our roll and add here and there a dollar or two a month to the salary of some worthy but poorly paid servant of God, that he might be not only more free from worldly care, but in some cases that his poorly-fed family might have more of the necessaries of life. A little increase here and there did not seem to be much; but when summed up, it amounted to many hundreds of dollars—quite as much of an increase as we dared make in this direction out of our only hoped for, but not certainly assured, larger incomes for the year we were then facing.

Our second step toward reparation and restoration was to lengthen the terms of a number of our larger schools a month or more, where the terms had been shortened to save expense. By doing this we not only put more work on the fields that were being cultivated, but we gave again to the teachers the portion of their salaries we had for several years been asking them to surrender, and which most of them had surrendered without murmur or complaint. We lengthened the terms of ten schools in which we have employed forty-nine teachers; fourteen teachers getting two months each additional and thirty-five getting one month each additional.

The third venture we made toward better things was to strengthen the work that is being done in a quiet and effectual way in our smaller parochial schools. When hard times came these were the first to suffer. Many were entirely closed, while most of those that continued at all were limited to a brief four months' term. The officers of the Women's Department of our Board volunteered to secure salaries for the needed teachers in a number of such schools, some of which were still in existence, but not supported by the board, while others had been closed for lack of funds. In this way twenty-two new teachers were commissioned in parochial schools for six months each. Several new teachers were granted in the higher schools where the teaching force was found not sufficient, making in all thirty-two new workers in the educational part of our work.

In these three ways, the Board at the beginning of the year when the new schedule had to be made up, obligated itself to an increased expenditure on the field of several thousand dollars over the year before. This enlargement of plans was quite moderate compared with the needs of the field; but made cautious by past experiences, and remembering how emphatic the church at large has been in insisting that the Benevolent Boards of the church shall keep their work within the limits of the amount furnished them, and knowing how inadequate the conception of the importance of this work is in the minds of many of our church people, our Board felt that it would not be justified in presuming any more than this on the probable increase this year in the gifts of the church to this cause.

It is hardly necessary to give in detail an account of the various efforts put forth toward stimulating interest in our work, or to tell how our hopes rose or fell each month as our carefully scanned receipts went ahead or fell behind, as compared with corresponding dates of the preceding year. It is enough to know that we have not been disappointed in our calculations; and in looking back over the way we have been lead we have reason to return thanks devoutly to our Heavenly Father for what he has permitted us to do, and for putting it into the hearts of good Christian men and women to furnish us the means with which to do it.

We received this last year from all sources $163,265.04. This was $8,231.96 more than the year before; and in our expenditures we came well within the amount placed at our disposal, as our Treasurer's report will show.

We have had more workers on the field and they have worked longer time, and it would seem that without doubt more has been accomplished for the good of the race and for the advancement of the cause of Christ, than in any preceding year.

ECONOMY.

The board tries always to keep in mind that its funds are sacred. The most of its money does not come from the wealthy and those who are able to bestow abundantly. Our income is not mainly from the rich city churches. It comes in small amounts from the thousands of smaller churches in the interior towns and rural districts. Much of this money is gathered in the House of God, in connection with Divine Service and as an act of worship. The most of it is given by the pious and God-fearing. All of it is given in the name of Christ and for Christ's sake. It is followed by the prayers of the givers, and is meant for the hastening of the coming of the Kingdom of God, and for the salvation of them that are ready to perish.

We are therefore careful to guard these gifts in every way we know how; and are ever watchful to avoid any and every needless expense. Strict economy is the rule at home and on the field. We believe our efforts in this direction are not in vain. When we consider the limited amount expended, and the extent and character of the work done and maintained, it must be quite evident to those who study the figures that there is no suggestion of lavish expenditure.

Four hundred and six workers have been supported on the field in their various spheres of labor. Of these 190 are ministers preaching to 342 churches and missions. Of these 190 ministers, 47 beside preaching, are also engaged in teaching, and 11 more ministers who do not preach regularly, devote their time to teaching. Here are 201 ministers, mostly with families dependent upon them, who receive the larger part of their support from the funds of the Board.

Nearly 21,000 professing Christians are spiritually fed through the ministrations of these ministers, and 20,000 children are taught in the Sabbath Schools.

Of the 406 workers, 263 are engaged in teaching in 79 schools, in which are gathered 10,708 pupils, of which number over 1,800 are boarding scholars. These schools and churches occupy hundreds of buildings, most of which are owned by the Board, and must be kept in repair, and insured against fire.

Considering the amount of work that is being done, the number that are being reached; the character of the work accomplished; the conditions under which it is being maintained; the cost and care of the property, there cannot be found very many organized missionary enterprises, where more is being done, with comparatively so small an amount of money.

TREND.

The number of churches we have heard from this year either directly or through one or more of their organized agencies, is 217 less than last year; the number of churches we have heard from directly as churches is 354 less; the number of Young People's Societies we have heard from directly is 127 more; the number of Sabbath Schools 233 less; the number of Woman's Societies 179 more.

Churches helping in any one way	4,764;	loss, 217
Churches helping by collections	3,974;	loss, 354
Young Peoples' Societies, direct	674;	gain, 127
Sunday Schools, direct	548;	loss, 233
Woman's Societies	2,616;	gain, 179

These figures are not as encouraging as they might be, but the loss in the number of agencies helping us is explained in part by the fact that last year the special effort made all over the church to help pay our debt naturally increased the number. Some churches quite likely helped us last year for the first time in their history, under special pressure, and with that pressure taken off have again lapsed into their chronic state of indifference. The explanation does not comfort us. The fact remains that out of 7,750 churches, only 3,974 sent us each, an annual collection. The loss however this year of 354 contributing churches does not wipe out the large gain last year of 452 churches.

Below is the table of receipts from our various sources of income for three years indicating that notwithstanding recessions here and there, in the final summing up each year shows an advance over its predecessor.

SELF-SUPPORT.

Each minister on the field is urged to push his people each year nearer and nearer to the time when they can stand alone as a church, and support their pastor without any outside help. Each President or Principal of each school is urged to run his school so that at the end of the year his accounts will show no deficit. In both church work and school work there is a direct pressure constantly exerted, gentle but firm, tending all the time toward a greater degree of self-support. Each year each church and each school sends in to the Board its figures in answer to the inquiry, as to how much has been given in this direction. The replies this year are most gratifying, showing that the movement is, as it has been almost continuously, in the right direction.

The amount contributed to self-support on the field and reported to the board, none of which goes through the Treasury of the Board, or enters in any way into our accounts was $82,066.67, an increase of $10,303.86 over the amount reported last year.

Of this amount Presbyterian Freedmen gave to the support of their own churches and ministers $37,226.41, an increase of $3,244.87.

The patrons of our schools gave toward these schools $44,852.79, an increase of $7,071.52 over last year.

Better times, higher price for cotton and other products of the soil, and of labor may partly explain the creditable increase. It is creditable under this explanation, but if the disposition to help themselves were not there, the slight improvement in their worldly condition, would not be sufficient to account for the results.

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT.

The Woman's Department of our Board, which is the same as the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board, has made itself felt more distinctly and unmistakably than ever before as a growing power for good in its work as an auxiliary to the work of our Board. Under the management of Mrs. Flora D. Palmer, as General Secretary, and Mrs. V. P. Boggs as Corresponding Secretary, with their rooms at 516 Market street, Pittsburgh, Pa., closely associated with the main office and headquarters of the Board, everything is being done to systematize and unify the work and bring the various Synodicals, Presbyterials and local societies into line. In all this we are glad to say they have the hearty sympathy and co-operation of the Woman's Board in New York, of which they are a Department, and also of our own Board, with which they are in daily consultation and in closest accord.

A commendable scheme for the prospective advancement and enlargement of our work at two important points was given this year to the Woman's Department at their own suggestion as a "special" and extra task over and above their regular work. This task was the raising of $10,000 toward the completion of the lacking wing of the building at Ingleside Seminary, Burkeville, Va., and $15,000 toward the purchase of needed adjoining property and the erection of a new building at Brainerd Institute, Chester, S. C. As neither of these enterprises are to be pushed to completion until the money is all raised and in hand, the spectre of a possible debt is eliminated from the problem. Concerning these special undertakings, as well as all else pertaining to the work of the Woman's Department, you are respectfully referred to Mrs. Palmer's annual report, printed as an appendix to this report. It sets forth in a clear and admirable manner the past success and growth of this Department, and outlines the plans that are being matured for still greater success in the future. We ask that the report be given a careful reading.

The annual amount received by our Board through the efforts of the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board is fast approaching the amount received directly from our Churches, Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies, and we hold up the example of these noble women as an incentive to pastors and churches to do more for us, hoping that these various agencies for good, all friendly to us and to one another, may by generous rivalry constantly more and more provoke one another unto higher and better things.

Miss Mary E. Holmes, Ph. D., of Rockford, Ill., appointed some years ago as Secretary of the Northwest, without compensation, and to whom was assigned the work of stimulating interest in Woman's Societies, Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies in all that region, made this year her fifth annual report, which shows her to have been quite as diligent in her work as in any of the past years she has served in this capacity. From her own report we learn that she planned and held 115 meetings, traveled 9,275 miles, wrote 2,615 letters and 993 postals and sent out her "Freedmen's Bulletin" on her own responsibility and without expense to the Board into almost every State and Territory of the Union.

Rev. J. P. E. Kumler, D. D., for seventeen years pastor of the East Liberty Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., has during his long and busy pastorate always found time to attend regularly the frequent meetings of the Board, of which he was and is one of its most interested and influential members.

The Board on learning of his intention to retire permanently from the pastorate, and recognizing the advantage of securing his service and influence in favor of a work that lies so near his heart, tendered to him the position of Field Secretary of the Board. While this was done in full view of the great benefit that would accrue to the work in thus enlisting his energies in our behalf, it was also done in recognition of his long and faithful service as a member of the Board.

The Doctor, in reply to the proposition, responded that he would be pleased to accept the position on one condition, and that condition was that it be clearly stated to the public and understood by the friends of the work that whatever service he might render would be rendered without salary.

The Board accepted the condition, the appointment was made, and without further delay was accepted by Dr. Kumler, to the great gratification of every member of the Board. Dr. Kumler's residence will be Washington City, D. C. While he will not at present burden himself unduly with the responsibilities of his new position, he will, as opportunity presents and as circumstances admit, present the work officially among the churches and to the benevolently inclined. He will also, it is hoped, find time to visit different sections of the work in the South as occasion may require and report to the Board, making such suggestions as from his own extended experience and personal observations he may deem wise or necessary.

Rev. John J. Beacom, D. D., whose serious physical disability was noted in our last Annual Report, continues to be laid aside from active service, waiting patiently to know His Master's will, and willing to accept His decision as to whether he shall ever return to his work or not. While still nominally the Treasurer of the Board, he has not been able even once to visit the office in the last sixteen months. The Corresponding Secretary has been made Acting Treasurer, and while continuing to discharge the duties of his own position as heretofore, has also attended to all the work previously performed by the Treasurer; and this without additional help, or addional compensation.

Rev. William H. Weaver, D. D., has continued his travels from place to place in response to the invitations of pastors and societies, lecturing effectively on the nature and extent of our work and illustrating his addresses with striking and instructive stereopticon views. He has recently revisited the field to freshen up his information, and to add to his collection of views, that he may more effectually interest pastors and people in the general work of the Board, about which so many seem so astonishingly misinformed notwithstanding all that has been done to bring to their attention its tremendous importance and imperative necessity.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

At the coming General Assembly there are to be appropriate services held in connection with the celebration of the dawning of the Twentieth Century of the Christian Era. Enthusiasm is to be stirred, gratitude is to be awakened, noble purposes are to be formed, and it is to be hoped great deeds are to be done by worthy men that will mark for the next one hundred years this eventful period of the world's history. Churches are to be built; schools of learning established; chairs to be endowed; long existing debts to be wiped out; new enterprises to be started, and the young century to be welcomed in a manner worthy of its importance, as the honored successor of the yet greatest century that time has ever seen. Amid these rejoicings, and celebrations, we want to ask the benevolently inclined of our church if it is possible—in looking around for objects worthy of special help, that the needs of this needy race are to be overlooked. Following the great century in which, through the power of the Gospel direct and indirect, the shackles of the slave were broken in every land where the light of the Cross has shone, are we not going to do something great, by which to endorse and confirm the good work already accomplished in the line of human liberty? Shall not the great Presbyterian Church, always a leader in every great movement involving human progress see to it that some lasting monument is reared at this time to commemorate these great achievements, in the honor of which it has no small share.

Our Board makes special request that the work it is doing be especially remembered in the distribution of gifts commemorative of the coming of this Twentieth Century of the Christian Era.

To be more specific we ask for the endowment of Biddle University, at Charlotte, N. C., the largest school of learning for colored people in the land under Presbyterian management, and entire control of the General Assembly; and presided over today by a black man, once himself a slave, but now a self-respecting free man, and an honored minister of the Presbyterian church.

Our Board respectfully places this institution on the list of worthy objects, for which contributions are to be asked, through the Twentieth Century Fund this year, and fixes the amount needed at $250,000, the interest of which will pay the salaries of its present professors, and release $12,500 of the annual receipts of our Board for the prosecution of other needy work among the poor and lowly.

It is with sorrow that we report that even while the last General Assembly was in session, Rev. Solon Cobb, D. D., one of the members of our Board, was suddenly stricken down, and before his fellow townsmen who were members of the Assembly returned to their homes he was dead and buried. He was a faithful and efficient member of the Board, and during the past year has been sadly missed. Rev. W. L. McEwan, D. D., pastor of the Third Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., was elected to fill the vacancy.

The term of service of the following members expires with this Assembly: Rev. David R. Breed, D. D., George B. Logan, S. P. Harbison, James C. Gray and Rev. W. L. McEwan, D. D.

We ask that they be re-elected.

EDWARD P. COWAN,
Corresponding Secretary and Acting Treasurer.

HENRY T. MCCLELLAND, D. D.,

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, at Philadelphia, Pa., May, 1901.

1. Your Committee has examined the books of the Board and finds them neatly and correctly kept. We recommend their approval.

2. We would recommend that this Assembly express its conviction that the scope of the Freedmen's work is such as to justify and imperatively call for the raising by the churches and societies of $250,000 for current expenses during the present year.

3. The term of service of the following named members of the Board expires with this Assembly, and after special inquiries as to their faithful and efficient labors in the Board, we recommend their re-election: Rev. David R. Breed, D. D., George B. Logan, S. P. Harbison, James C. Gray and Rev. W. L. McEwan, D. D.

4. We recommend that the first Sunday of December be specially set apart as a fitting occasion for each Sunday School of the church to contribute to this Board, and that we urge each school to co-operate in this patriotic and Christ-like enterprise.

5. We desire to commend most heartily the work of our consecrated women, and of the Young People's Societies of the church in furthering this great cause.

6. We recommend that the plan of the Board to seek co-operation in raising a $250,000 Endowment for Biddle University, as part of the Twentieth Century Fund Movement, receive our heartiest God-speed, and that by action of this Assembly the church, through appropriate channels, in co-operation with the Twentieth Century Committee, hereby undertakes to raise that amount in the near future.

7. Finally, we recommend that the various Synods and Presbyteries be earnestly requested in selecting Chairmen of their Freedmen's Committees, that they appoint such brethren as are specially fitted to take local leadership in pushing zealously among the churches the general work of this Board, in co-operation with the local Woman's and Young People's Societies, and who shall particularly co-operate in the raising of the $250,000 Endowment for Biddle University.

HENRY W. HULBERT,
Chairman.

Attest: W. H. ROBERTS,
Stated Clerk.

SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT

OF THE

WOMAN'S BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

It is with profound gratitude to God and to all the organizations of the church contributing through the Woman's Board of Home Missions, that the Freedmen's Department is able to report an advance of nearly $6,000 over last year's receipts. The fiscal year, ending April 15, 1900, gave an advance over the previous year of $8,267.76 through contributions from Women's Missionary Societies and Bands, Young People's Societies and Sabbath Schools contributing through Women's Board, including money sent by Woman's Societies direct to Board of Missions for Freedmen.

The fiscal year, ending April 15, 1901, shows an advance of $5,878.58 over the year ending April 15, 1900, from the same sources, aggregating $61,308.07, making an advance in two years of $14,146.34. Reports show a decrease in gifts from 12 Synods and an increase from 14. The following Synodical Societies have fallen below the mark attained last year: Baltimore, California, Catawba, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Nebraska, New Jersey, North Dakota, Texas and Utah. The following Synodical Societies have made an advance: Atlantic, Colorado, Indian Territory, Iowa, Minnesota, Montana, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Washington and Wisconsin. The advance made by the last named Synodical Societies has been such that, notwithstanding the decrease in gifts from the first mentioned Synods, there has been a general advance of $5,878.78.

The contributions of the Churches, the Young People's Societies, Sabbath Schools and individuals, direct to the Board of Missions for Freedmen for fiscal year ending April 15, 1901, aggregated $78,071.76. The Women's Missionary Societies, Sabbath Schools, Young People's Societies and miscellaneous gifts through Woman's Board and from Societies, direct to Freedman's Board aggregated $61,308.07, making nearly 44 per cent. of the entire contributions of all organizations of the Church for Freedmen. The Sabbath Schools contributing through Woman's Board fell behind last year's record $177.11. The Young People's Societies have made an advance of 25 per cent. over last year's contributions, showing a goodly number added to our list of contributing Young People's Societies; for this we are especially grateful. The Board of Missions for Freedmen asked the Young People's Societies of the Church to raise $15,000 for a new building for Brainerd Institute: of this amount less than $2,000 has been contributed. This object will continue as the "Special" for all Young People's Societies another year with the confidence that the necessary amount will be received during the new year, as it is now thoroughly before the societies.

This department made its First Annual Report in 1885 with 123 Societies contributing from 13 Synods to the amount of $3,010.58. In 1894, the tenth year of it's existence, 1,370 Societies, representing 25 Synods, contributed $39,660. In 1901, 2,616 Societies, representing 28 Synods, contributed $61,308.07. The first ten years this department aggregated $276,518.27; the last seven years it has aggregated $338,322.14, making a total in the seventeen years of $614,840.41, which has been applied largely to the educational work of the Freedmen's Board, through teachers' salaries, scholarships, buildings and for general work. The $61,308.07, received during the fiscal year just closed, has been applied as follows: Teachers' salaries, $18,554.11; scholarships, $15,829.33; building fund, $7,192.80; general fund, $19,731.83.

The "Special" given to all Women's Societies for the year just closed was to raise $10,000 to build a wing for Ingleside Seminary. We regret that this has not received the response for which we hoped, as less than $5,000 has been contributed for this purpose. This object will continue as a "Special" another year, and we feel confident that the full amount will be secured, as it is now thoroughly understood.

The Farm for the "Mary Potter School" has been entirely paid for by the New York Synodical Society. The support for 22 new teachers in parochial schools, restored this year by the Freedmen's Board, has been given this year by Women and Young People's Societies, individuals and Sabbath Schools. We are deeply gratified for the response to this special feature of the work. The cost of these schools runs from $100 to $150 each. Of the 22 salaries, New York gave 10; Pennsylvania, 8; Cleveland, O., 1; Washington, D. C., 1; Mrs. De Witt Clinton Blair, of New York City, 1; Mrs. J. M. Ham, of Brooklyn, 1. It is the hope of this department to give, in time, instruction in sewing to the girls in every parochial school under the Board of Missions for Freedmen, of which there are 67. Thousands of children come to these schools who can never hope to enter schools of higher grade. At least 5,000 children are instructed in these schools, more than one-half of which are girls. We are confident that all Christian women will recognize the value of this line of industrial work in the homes from which these girls come.

The call, from the field, for Bibles, has been unusually great; to meet this we have supplied 2,000 copies, distributing them through 135 different ministers and teachers, requesting that a low price be charged where people were able to pay and the money returned to the Bible Fund for supplying future needs. We are indebted to Mrs. Mary E. Ainslie, of Rochester, Minn., through the Philadelphia Female Bible Society, for $181 towards this special work; also for $23 received directly from the treasury of this Society. We acknowledge gratefully a discount of 50 per cent. from the American Bible Society upon an order of 1,900 copies of the Bible to meet the demand. This generosity, with the money received as mentioned above, enabled us to respond to the calls from the field.

We believe that Missionary Societies of all kinds have been greatly stimulated by the Freedmen's number of the Home Mission Monthly, Our heartiest thanks to the Magazine Committee and to the teachers and ministers who contributed material for this number.

Miss Mary E. Holmes, Ph. D., Secretary for the Northwest, has been unceasing in effort in behalf of the cause, and we acknowledge with gratitude and appreciation her valuable service.

It is with special gratification that we report a greatly increased correspondence with Synodical and Presbyterial officers relating to the work of Women's and Young People's Societies. We have come in direct touch with almost every Synodical and Presbyterial official during the year. We invite free and general interchange of thought upon work with Societies of all kinds, believing that such is mutually helpful. The varied effort, in countless lines through the months of the closed year, by the Secretaries of this department—if compared with the countless prayers offered by the great army of workers in the Synodical, Presbyterial and local Societies, and the self-denial, hard and incessant work and anxiety on their part, of which $61,308.07 is an exponent—would seem as nothing.

The Box work, on the new basis, has been much more satisfactory than last year in thirteen Synods. We are especially gratified that the work done this year has been more generally towards meeting specific needs. We invite general co-operation with this department in all Box work, begging all Societies to confer with us before deciding upon their work for the new year. Send all correspondence relating to this line of work to Mrs. V. P. Boggs, 516 Market street, Pittsburg, Pa. Our endeavor is to supply, first, all needed table and bed linen and bedding for Seminaries and Boarding Schools, then to supply ministers and teachers with clothing—both new and second hand—that needy children in the Sabbath Schools, poor families in congregations, and especially the aged poor, may be made comfortable. Valuation of boxes reported to this office is $16,000. We know that this amount does not represent fully the work in this line. Nebraska alone supplied Monticello Academy, in Arkansas, most generously with all needed table and bed linen, and this is not included in the $16,000. We are confident that all the Synods will fall into line when it is thoroughly understood that the aim is to make the supply meet the demand and to equalize the supply. This can never be done until every box goes to meet a definite need. The needs are all reported to the Board, hence all societies should apply to the Board for blanks for box work.

The demand for literature has been unprecedented, coming from every Synod in the entire Church, and all orders have been promptly filled. The Board of Missions for Freedmen granted this department the privilege of issuing eight new leaflets this spring; these, with those issued last year, gives us thirty new sketches and stories within two years. We interpret the increased demand for information concerning the cause as a growth in interest on the part of the women and young people of the church; in this we rejoice and take courage.

During the year a very choice and interesting musical contribution was made by Professor Yorke Jones, D. D., of Biddle University, of "The Slave Mother's Song," of which he is the author. Some months ago the manuscript was placed in our hands. The beauty and pathos of both the words and music led to the publication of the song. Professor Jones most generously dedicated the song to the Endowment of Biddle University. Several hundred copies of the song have been sold and we hope the sale may run to many thousand.

One of the great achievements of the nineteenth century in America has been the progress of the emancipated Negro. The women of the Presbyterian church have borne a noble part in emancipating the women of the race from the bondage of ignorance and immorality, through Christian education given to thousands of women and girls in the seminaries and schools of every grade under the Freedmen's Board in the past thirty-eight years. Ennobled womanhood, an able and efficient teachership among women, an army of homemakers and keepers, thousands of Christian women with highest ideals of life are monuments of the sympathy, interests and gifts of the women of the Presbyterian Church.

Let us inscribe upon our banner as the motto for the new year: "'More love for Thee, O Christ'; more heart sympathy and love for the Black Race and more loyalty to the work our own Church is seeking to do."

Respectfully submitted,

FLORA D. PALMER,

General Secretary.
